

Anti-Ragging Policy

Ragging is a cognizable offense and Vanguard Business School will take strict action against offenders

Anti-Ragging Measures

Pursuant to the directives of the Honourable Supreme Court of India and in accordance with the UGC Regulations, on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, the Vanguard Business School has constituted the Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squads for overseeing the strict and meticulous implementation of all the directives. The members of the anti-ragging committee and anti-ragging squads along with their mobile numbers are being displayed for the benefit of the students.

Definition of Ragging

“Any conduct by any student or students, whether by word spoken or written or by an act, which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student. Exploiting the students from completing academic tasks and financial extortion. Any act of physical abuse, including all its variants – sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, and stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health of a person. Any act that prevents disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of other students”.

- A close and regular liaison is maintained with the local police to guard against the incident of ragging.
- FIR will be lodged in a police station on all reported ragging cases.
- Daily briefing of fresher's is carried out by counselors and coordinators.
- An anti-ragging committee of the students is also formed.
- In case any student encounters ragging by any of the senior students, he/she is immediately required to contact the members of the anti-ragging committee, who will take an immediate corrective action and necessary proceedings will be initiated against the culprits engaged in ragging activities.
- Monitoring campus areas susceptible to ragging through security measures, including CCTV cameras.
- Taking swift & strict action against individuals found guilty of ragging, including expulsion or legal consequences.
- Organizing workshops for both students and staff to create awareness, educate on preventive measures & address psychological aspects of ragging.
